16 Churches attended the Revival Prayer Conference in Barranquilla, Colombia

We had the privilege to minister to sixteen churches in the northern region of Colombia. They are working through the revitalization process. Fourteen are from northern Colombia, one is from Medellin and another from Rio Negro.

How were the disciples taught to pray?

How should a church pray?

What lessons were learned from the book of Acts about prayer?

Is the vision for our ministry birthed in prayer?

What is missing in our prayer life?

Al Baker, challenged us all with the truth about prayer and the necessity for revival prayer. Your church needs to hear what he presented. Contact me for more information.

Thursday and Friday before the prayer conference I discussed vision for ministry and barriers to change that must be addressed.

Please pray:

- The churches will press on with God's plans.
- I will have wisdom regarding follow-up with the individual churches.
- God will raise up a model church that demonstrates a Spirit empowered church in which the members are doing effective ministry.

Please pray for Simon Florez. He is my primary Timothy and translator in Colombia. God has gifted him with the ability to translate a lot of materials into Spanish. He left in September for a year long missions trip to Germany. Pray he will grow in the Lord and return strong to continue our work together. Also pray for me to find a good translator for the year he is gone.

Pastors and church leaders from Colombia I am coaching.

These men and women are just a few representatives from churches that your support and prayers have enabled us to assist.

We deeply appreciate your prayers and support. Lives are being impacted.

One of the pastors in the picture is proof of your impact. Since, our first meeting last year about church revitalization, he began the process. Now, a year later, the church has doubled in attendance and they are pursuing the path toward church health.

I am in awe of how God stirs hearts and transforms churches one life at a time.

Thank you for your partnership and prayers.

We need your prayers and support now as we face incredible opportunities.

- Expanding Bible Institute locations
- Web based Spanish online training
- Training of new Bible Institute leadership staff
- Spanish translation of new materials from Henry Blackaby.

We thank God for your faithfulness.
