Thank you for praying for my recent Colombia trip. I had a great time with our new team members Maria, Simon, and Anderson in northern Colombia ministering to 8 churches. Since, I sent two reports by email I will not repeat the details. If you are not receiving emails please send me your email address, so you can get current updates with more pictures.

I am preparing to return to Colombia November 4 to meet pastors in two cities interested in being students in our World Reach Bible Institutes. I will also lead a men's retreat with about 25 men from a church in downtown Medellin, that I have been coaching for about 6 years. Simon will be working with me leading the morning sessions, and I will lead the afternoon sessions focusing on lessons for life from 1 Peter.

Please pray the pastors will understand and commit to our training in the Bible Institute.

Pray for the hearts of the men to be transformed through the study of 1 Peter in our time together November 13-15.

Raising up leaders and building a team:

When I study the writings of Paul in the New Testament, I am challenged with the number of leaders and coworkers he raised up. Romans 16 list about 36 names. Paul saw the value of reproducing himself and thus multiplying the work of ministry. I have been blessed to have trained and recruited our Colombian team. You can see their bios on the www.world-reach.org website and give to support their ministries. I want to highlight two of our new team members. They need your prayer and support to help us do the ministry in Colombia, and they are important to our future ministry.

Maria Vélez joined World Reach this year after working with Lolly and me for many years. She was a blessing in recent trip to San Pedro and loved by all there! Pray for her ministry to women. This is an area that needs to be developed in Colombia.

Cristian Fuentes also joined World Reach this year. He is very involved in church planting and teaching pastors how to study the Bible so they can preach accurately and powerfully the gospel. He was student of the Bogota class of 2015 and has a heart for God and for His word.

Thank you for your prayers and support. Please consider helping me raise the support needed for Maria and Cristian to have the funds needed to fulfill their calling. Lives will be impacted, and the kingdom will be advanced. If you are not receiving our email updates, then please contact me so we can add you to the list.
