APRIL-MAY

During April and May, I developed the new World Reach curriculum classes. It was a challenge, with much studying and patience, as I recorded all the videos and prepared the new written materials for our Bible Institute students. I worked on three classes: Spanish Grammar and Spiritual Disciplines, Inductive Bible Study, and a class on the book of Philippians. It is a blessing to learn all this for myself, in addition, to preparing materials to teach others.

Teaching a class in front of a camera is not as comfortable as having the students in front of you with their questions.

JUNE

One of the highlights of this month was our youth camp. My wife Laura was of great help in planning every detail of the camp. At first, we planned to have 25 youth but as interest grew, we invited more, and they responded. In the end, 50 young men and women 13 to 25 years old, attended and heard God's Word.

Anderson Naranjo and Maria Velez (two World Reach missionaries) helped me with the teaching and planning.

Please pray, as we do a follow-up with those who heard the Word for the first time, that we can communicate with them effectively and start discipleship groups.
