

ANDRES & MONICA ACOSTA

Dear Brothers and Sisters in CHRIST,

Greetings! We thank you for your prayers, offerings and for staying in touch with us. We are so grateful when we are able to stay in communication with you. We pray that you and your family are enjoying daily fellowship with our LORD and that you are in good health.

We want to share with you a little about our family. Our children are doing well and serving within our local congregation. Our granddaughters, Amy and Briella continue attending their school. About a week ago we had lunch with them. They asked us what it was to receive Jesus as your Savior and why they should do this. Monica and I shared with our granddaughters the message of Salvation. They understood and decided to give their hearts to Jesus. We are so excited that God gave us that opportunity to share with them.

As far as our ministry, we are happy that Monica has been able to take up her ministries again. She has begun counseling, teaching the Word of God to women in various churches, and giving classes via zoom to the pastors' wives in Buenos Aires.

As far as my ministry goes, I have been able to continue in what God has called me as well. I am very excited to be ministering to and counseling those who seek it. I have especially been working with some youth from our church. Most of these young men come to our house. Along with Monica we are able to offer them a glimpse into a Christian home. Lucas continues faithfully walking with God. He is now studying in the online school of Word of Life, and serves in the church.

Graduation MBI Malvinas

We have begun a Bible study with a group of doctors and businessmen. Please pray for their salvation. We thank God for the opportunity to conclude the classes for the Bible Institute in La Iglesia Cristiana Evangélica in Malvinas. There were 58 graduates who received their diploma.

We took advantage of the visit of Jon and Kelly Simpson to hold various activities. Besides the Bible Institute, we met with churches in Cordoba and Salta to talk about Church Revitalization. We had various meetings with the pastors.

I would like to ask you to pray for us as we plan our trip to the US. The purpose of this trip would be to visit with supporting churches. We tried to take this trip last year, and were unable to, we are praying we will be able to this time.

We thank all of you for the time you take to read this letter. We thank you for praying for us, and for walking with us in our ministries. May God bless you.

Your servants in Christ,

Andres & Monica
