

WORLD REACH®

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Greetings and blessings to each of you. With thankfulness and joy I want to share with you about our recent trip to the jungle where we had an event with the Curipacos tribe.

It was exciting to enter the jungle. It was intense for me, because it was like going into my past. I remembered what it had been like to travel the rivers to each community of tribes to preach the Word of God.

As we arrived in the community of Magua, Venezuelan Amazons, it was a great joy seeing my spiritual children. I saw that the majority of them are married with children and serving the Lord. They are pastors, deacons, missionaries and translators (translating the Old Testament into their languages). God surprised me with how He works, all in His time.

I had the opportunity to teach the Word of God in various churches. I also counseled many leaders.

WORLD REACH®

Lucas, a young man I am discipling, went with me. He helped me with teaching the children. This was a great missionary experience for him.

We are praying for our next trip to the jungle so we can meet with the Puinaves tribe. We hope to go in September 2023. They are a very special people to us. Please pray for this opportunity. We would be able to minister to our previous students and possibly continue a ministry there.

As far as our ministry in Argentina, we continue with discipleship and counseling. There are more and more people coming to us asking for help. Monica continues to teach the women.

I want to thank you for praying for us and for our ministry. Thank you for your financial support by giving to World Reach. We ask you to pray for wisdom as we counsel. We have many church leaders we are working with. Please pray for our health and strength.

Thank you. May God bless you richly.

Your servants in Christ,

Andres and Monica Acosta
