Dear Friends,

It's hard to believe I've been full time with World Reach since January. As a pastor, your job is "mostly reactionary," you keep up with your congregation and their day to day struggles along with the ministries of the church. Now, as a Global missionary, in addition to traveling abroad, my time is spent writing and gathering materials for curriculum development, teaching and coaching pastors and church leaders, and traveling to share this ministry with churches: Here's an idea of what the last 3 months have been like:

- Since teaching at the retreat for Word Reach leaders in Colombia in February, I have had many Zoom and face to face coaching opportunities with pastors and friends. I am in the process of completing my "Gospel Coach" requirements for Church Multiplication Ministries.

- A great deal of my time has centered on writing a class entitled "Knowing the God of Hope." This class fulfills the curriculum's requirement for "the Spiritual Life of the Believer" and I recently presented the material (which consists of 27 contact hours) to pastors and Christian leaders in Meru, Kenya. Earlier this Spring, I had an opportunity to "test drive" the material at a Men's Retreat at Redeemer Presbyterian Church in Athens, Ga. I was encouraged by the men's reaction as we reminded each other of our union with Christ and God's constant, loving activity in our lives. (Please continue on opposite page)

- In the Spring I participated in Westwood PCA's mission conference. This summer I will be in Johnson City, TN (Westminster PCA), Albany, GA (Northgate Presbyterian), Dothan, AL (Westwood PCA), Macon, GA (First Presbyterian) and Jasper, TN (Grace PCA). In September, I will return to Colombia for 2 weeks and wind up the year's teaching with a trip to Peru in November.

Here's what I am most excited about! As mentioned, I have had many opportunities to "coach" and mentor several brothers in Christ. So far, the Lord has given me eight men to work with! Six are "international coaching relationships" (3 in Kenya/3 in Colombia). What a privilege to be part of these men's lives! Please pray that the Lord would continue to grant us deep friendships as we encourage and remind one another of our union with Christ.
