“Because Christ Jesus has made us His own...”
(Ph. 3:12b)

Dear Friends,

I hope you are well!

The summer has come and gone and now we’re racing toward the end end of the year. Throughout 2023, the Lord has been encouraging to us in so many ways, namely;

- opportunities to teach and coach pastors and church leaders in Kenya and Colombia (and the states),
- training opportunities as a “Gospel Coach,” with Church Multiplication Ministries
- Leadership training with S.E.R.G.E,
- new friendships
- reconnecting with friends who have joined us in this ministry.

It is wonderful to hear the stories of God’s faithfulness to us all over the years! We belong to Him, and because He “has made us his own,” He continues to invite us to draw near, guides us along the way, and constantly reminds us of His precious promises.

The next path for me will be 2 weekend conferences in Colombia. I will travel to Bogota on Thursday, September 21 to meet my dear brother Simon Florez. Simon is a national missionary with World Reach and will serve as my translator.

On Friday we take a small plane to Uraba for the first teaching sessions. Monday, we fly back to Bogota and then to Armenia, where we will visit with church leaders before the weekend’s conference. In addition to teaching and meeting with pastors, I will also preach both Sundays while in Colombia. What a privilege to be invited to proclaim the Gospel!

It is deeply humbling to have these opportunities for Gospel ministry. It is also deeply humbling to have your involvement and encouragement through your prayers and financial gifts. You are a great picture the Lord’s heart and I am deeply grateful for your love. I am praying that all of us will know more and more...

“that Jesus has made us His own,”

The Lord is our Rock,

Rick
