

The students in my Bible Institute class in Cuevas, Peru in November

Dear Family & Friends,

We've had an eventful last few months and we wanted to tell you all about it!

In Nov., I traveled to Peru to teach two Bible Institute (BI) courses. From Nov. 6-9, I taught a course on the "Spiritual Life of the Believer" to 28 students at our Cuevas BI. Cuevas is a small rural town in the mountains of northern Peru, where you have to take a 4x4 truck up a winding mountainous dirt road to get to Cuevas and back. Most of the students travel hours on foot or by motor bike to attend our BI classes!

The second week, from Nov. 13 - 16, I translated the same course for 40 students at our Alao BI in the jungle of northeastern Peru. This course was taught by Rick Searle. Rick and I had an enjoyable week together teaching the class. I also got to spend time with Marco Requena, a good friend who taught a course on Marriage Counseling from Nov. 6-9 at our Chulucanas BI. God blessed these courses tremendously.

A few weeks ago (Jan. 7-13), Colleen & I went to Armenia, Colombia to help lead a planning retreat with our Colombia Missionary Team. We were able to encourage and challenge our missionaries and help them make ministry plans for 2024. Colleen and I led a workshop on "How to care for your spouse on the mission field," which went very well. We met with each missionary one-on-one to see how they met their goals for last year and what their plans and goals are for this year.

WR Director Bobby Wilson challenged them to begin working towards mobilizing Latino missionaries to go to the unreached peoples in the 10/40 window. Overall, it was a very fruitful and encouraging week.

We're working on scheduling all our teachers & courses for our BIs in Colombia, Peru, Kenya & other countries. I'm preparing to teach a course on Hermeneutics from Feb. 22-25 at our BI in Medellin, Colombia.

Please pray for us for:

1. Colombia BI classes in Ura-ba, Medellin, Montelibano & Puerto Inirida (Amazon)
2. Peru BI classes in Cuevas, Alao & Tumbes (a new BI site).
3. My teaching a course on Hermeneutics in Feb. in Medellin.
4. Feb. classes at 2 Kenya BI sites.
5. Launching our Uganda BI.
