Taking Christ to the Nations

"Giving thanks to God the Father who has qualified us to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in the Light."

Colossians 1:12

Well, Christmas is over and the New Year of 2024 is here. This is my first letter to you, my beloved, this year. Since my last letter, I have begun teaching a new Bible study where I work. I am teaching on the book of Genesis from the Precept Study. The class is growing, and the thirst these men have to learn the Word of God is growing too. The thirst comes only from God, and He satisfies the thirst for Him. The good thing is that these men come after a long day of work to sit, hear, learn, and ask many questions concerning the Word of God (LOVE IT!!).

LaShoron (my wife) is finishing her study with the ladies at work on the book of John. Most of these women are in their early twenties, and they told LaShoron they do not want to stop - they are excited to start a new study. Please pray that they do not get discouraged; so many distractions pull at them, and the temptations of the world are really real. To sit and hear the Word and to learn to obey the Word is a blessing.

Many of you may not know I lost my brother, Cedric McNeal, to a tragic accident on January 9, 2024 the day after I had my surgery on my prostate (which went very well). This of course was a great shock for all of my family. It happened to him while he was going to the doctor. My brother was the one God used to bring me back to Birmingham out of the great darkness I was in while living in New York City. I will truly miss him.

"May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit."

Romans 15:13

This June, I will be headed back to the Kenya Bible Institute to teach the course on Evangelism. This is the last class the pastors are trained in before they graduate. This is my passion - to see others share their faith with confidence and to teach others also.

Please pray for me as I continue to do the work God has called me to do. Also, please pray for my family after the death of my brother.

Thank you for your continued support for us in this great work.

Blessings,
