

WORLD REACH®

Taking Christ to the Nations

Andres & Monica Acosta • May 2024

Dear Church, dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Greetings from us with love and gratitude. Thank you for taking the time to pray for us, to partner with us, and to write to us. We praise God because we are not alone. Greater is He than the one that is in the world.

We spent January and February in counseling, discipleship and giving a seminar on Christian Character.

In March we had the opportunity to travel to the United States. The reason of the trip was an invitation to spend time with a family that is very dear to us. God generously provided for the plane tickets to Texas. The travel day was very difficult, because while we were in Houston awaiting our next plane, I grew very faint and I fell. Immediately, the paramedics were there and I was transported to a hospital in an emergency vehicle. They performed various tests on me, and the test results produced two surprises. The first was that I had dengue fever, and the second was that I have 3 small aneurysms in my brain. After our time in Texas, and much needed recovery time, we were able to fly back home to Argentina. I am currently in the hands of my neurologist and cardiologist. I have had many tests to define how to proceed to take care of the aneurysms. Please, I ask you would join me in praying for this process. Please pray for the doctors, the exams, and the medication I will need. Please pray God would provide for all of these needs. Thank you for praying.

As far as continuing my ministry, at this moment I am unable to engage fully while I am seeking the best treatment for my health.

I ask that you would pray for my wife, Monica. She has been my caretaker, but she has also resumed her ministry responsibilities of counseling and teaching in the women's activities. She is also heavily involved in a new Bible study, alongside two other women from the church. They are meeting in a home as an evangelistic outreach for the women in the community. Some have given their lives to Jesus, others have not yet, but they still eagerly attend each week.

Thank you brothers and sisters for joining us in prayer, for being our prayer warriors. May God bless you in Christ.

Your servants for Christ,

Andres and Monica Acosta • John 15:16
