Taking Christ to the Nations

The Huyhua Family in Lima Peru,

May 2024

Beloved, once again we greet you and want to share with you what God has been doing and speaking into our lives, both personally and in ministry.

Trip to the jungle: once again I had the opportunity (thanks to God and your offerings) to travel to Tarapoto, the jungle region of Peru (specifically San Martin de Alao), to teach and train pastors for one week. The week was not only a great blessing, but also a challenge to see the hearts of the pastors to be able to learn and retain faithfully the Holy Scriptures. This labor is my calling and I share it with so that you can continue being part of this privilege, remembering that this great missions work is not in vain. The idea is to give these pastors tools so they can not only reach others, but also fortify and edify their own churches. We ask that you continue praying that we would be able to teach and impart with faithfulness and accuracy the Word of Christ which has the power to edify.

Trip to Curacao: praise God, He has provided so Evelyng can travel to Curacao in September along with some of the ladies from our church for a conference. We are grateful for your prayers and for God's response and provision. She continues serving in discipleship and in the prenatal center, as well as helping with the ladies of our church.

Discipleship: these last two months we have had the challenge of discipling two more families. They are relatively new and it is a blessing from God to be able to grow alongside them. We ask you to pray for wisdom, since discipleship includes counseling biblically in areas such as marriage, parenting, and child discipline. We ask you to pray for us, that we would see the fear of God in our own two sons and a personal relationship with Christ, since that will be an example of what we are teaching these families.

Family meeting: each Friday we continue meeting with families who began coming two years ago. We are laying doctrinal bases and basic foundations, since some come from other religious contexts and want to grow in the Truth of God. We enjoy these meetings very much. Some of them were baptized last Sunday in our church, and it was very satisfying to see them taking steps of obedience to Christ.

Youth: we continue the challenge of raising up our next generation, trusting that God will use them as future leaders. We teach formative and leadership themes with the three groups we have, and we are being very intentional and serious with these meetings. We have leaders who are of great blessing and help with whom we have the privilege of laboring in this responsibility.

Pray with us, we have topics to work on this year and some special meetings coming up. We meet together with the parents of the youth who attend as well, not only to inform them, but also to share with them the vision for their kids.

Continue praying as we are hoping that God will allow us to see one more family join in this ministry, so that we can delegate more responsibility to them and reduce our involvement. Please pray for faithful families who will continue helping us in this labor.

Our family: God provided for our two boys, David and Nathan, to continue studying at La Roca school for the first half of the school year. We continue praying that God would help increase our support for personal & ministry needs. Please pray that God will provide the remaining $2,300 monthly support we are responsible to raise for World Reach.

Beloved, thank you so much for your prayers and consideration that you have for our family. You motivate us to continue sowing for the heavenly kingdom, knowing that our God will supply everything we need in Christ. May God bless and keep you.

Sincerely,

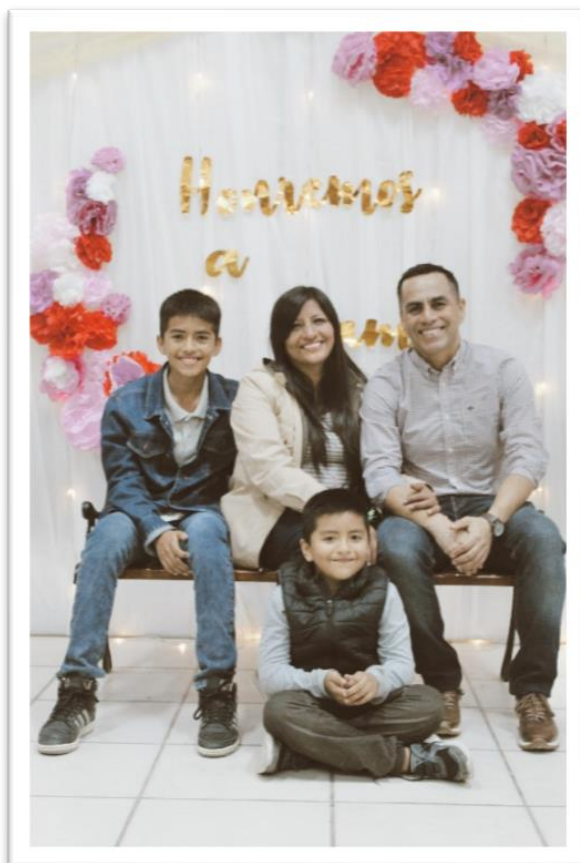

Bryan, Evelyng, David, and Nathan Huyhua
