Beloved,

We want to thank you for your faithfulness to God. During these last months, I was meditating on how I want to be found by the Lord, and I want to be faithful.

Psalm 12:1-2 says, “Save, O LORD, for the godly one is gone; for the faithful have vanished from among the children of man.

Everyone utters lies to his neighbor; with flattering lips and a double heart they speak”.

How important it is today to find godly and faithful men. It has become so common for many people to say good things with their lips, but their actions are totally evil. The only way we can find godly and faithful men is to train them in God’s Word and in the fear of God, but in God’s way, surrendering ourselves completely to the leading of the Holy Spirit. This takes time, prayers, and dedication to the cause of Christ. The apostle Paul was totally right when he wrote by the leading and breath of the Holy Spirit saying, “This know also, that in the last days perilous (dangerous) times shall come”.

That’s why I said we want to thank you for your faithfulness to God, and now I add, and to us. Thank you, thank you, thank you. Your prayers, your support, your visits, your phone calls, your notes mean a lot to us. We are a team together. Let’s continue to work together for the cause of Christ until He returns and finds us faithful.

Please continue to pray for us, that we will continue to invest in the lives of children, because we believe they are the most vulnerable group that is being devoured by evil people. We are working in the neighborhoods, in the new church plant in Roldan, at the school, intentionally reading the Bible to them, and taking the gospel to them.

Pray also for the school ministry. This morning I met a father at the school office, and he came and told me about his desire to change his life and to follow Christ. His question was: "Can you please help me understand the gospel so I can deeply understand the ways I need to change my life, so that as a family we can live a Christian life?" What a joy to hear this man who wants to meet the Savior.

Beloved, we love you and are praying for you. Please continue to lift us up in your daily prayers.

Till all will hear of the Savior,

Juan, Eva, and Priscila Barriento
