NEWS

It is wonderful to be able to share the latest news of what God has allowed me to do these last three months. It has been a privilege to work with the coordinators, students, and teachers of each of the Bible Institutes (BIs) in Colombia and in other places.

Cordoba – Preliminary BI Class in April

I taught a preliminary BI course to 23 students in April at our BI in Montelibano, Cordoba. It was great to see what the Lord did in this class, and how the flipped classroom form of study is fulfilling its purpose of helping the students to learn better. We see this in the personal study time that each student puts in and in their participation and interaction in the live classes, which have produced good results. Testimonies of how God guided them to recognize how their heart is with regard to serving God and others, was one of the biggest impacts that I heard the most during the class.

Meeting with my BI Coordinators On-Line & with the BI Coordinator in Medellin

I also had the opportunity to meet online with the 4 coordinators of each of the BIs that we are founding in Colombia. My plan is to encourage them to carry out God's work in the people that want to be trained, and that they would also prepare themselves for be an example for the students. I ask you to pray for them, since each of them have their own struggles in the different contexts where they live. But they long to serve the Lord in His work.

I want to tell you about one of these BI coordinators. His name is Edison from the city of Medellín. He is in the photo (to the right) with World Reach missionary Alan Perdomo, who taught the BI class in Medellín in April and was a great blessing to Edison, guiding him as he helped with the class.

Uraba – Preliminary BI Class in June

I would also like to tell you about Pastor Wbeimar who is in the photo (on the left) with his son. God is leading him to plant and develop a church in Chigorodó, Urabá. I taught the June BI class on Inductive Bible Study in Uraba, and I was accompanied by my wife, Sandra. It was a great time as a couple seeing how God's work is being carried out in different parts of Colombia. She returned very encouraged to do different kinds of missionary work. I ask for your prayers for Pastor Wbeimar's family, that they will continue to be steadfast in the work that they are doing in Uraba.

Blessings,

Cristian & Sandra
