

WORLD REACH®

Taking Christ to the Nations

Leo Arriaga • June 2024

Thank God that He has strengthened me. I thank Jesus that He has seen me as faithful, placing me in ministry.

I traveled to Peru on April 19th and was there until May 6th. This was an invitation I received to preach and teach in the churches of northern Peru. I began preaching in Lima, at the Philadelphia church. We began the time with a men's meeting on Friday, the day I arrived in Lima. Then on Saturday there was a youth conference, and on Sunday I preached. On that same day we traveled north to Piura. That night we preached in a daughter church of Philadelphia. The next day we left for the mountains of northern Peru to teach a class at the Mobile Bible Institute. Twenty-four students were in attendance who were Pastors and leaders from the surrounding areas.

When that week concluded, we traveled to Puerto Pizarro, which is a city that borders Ecuador. We were able to preach and teach at a church that is being planted there. There is much need, and God allowed us to see the desire they have to reach many for Christ. There were many children and young people in this church, and they were excited to grow in God's Word. We praise God for the work that is being done in this place. The Gospel of Jesus is reaching into many far off places.

These men have accepted the challenge to prepare themselves in the Scriptures. Most of these men traveled hours by foot, or sought alternative modes of transportation. They shared with me their adventures in arriving and were eager to participate in the class.

As I returned to Lima, I meditated on what was accomplished. We preached the Gospel for 10 days straight. We literally taught day and night, and after arriving in Lima, the teaching continued for the next 6 days. I confess, I was exhausted. At the end, I felt spent, but extremely satisfied for the opportunity to share with so many: 24 Bible Institute students and 4 churches. We shared the Gospel with the lost and I met many brothers and sisters in Christ.

Alos, here in my country, I have continued serving. Five people passed through the waters of baptism in the Family of Faith in May. This is a great blessing to see how each day many are joining the church, giving their lives to Jesus and taking that public step of baptism. Thank God for the Family of Faith. It is growing little by little; growing to fulfill the great commission of going to the world and preaching the Gospel to all, baptizing them in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

The work in the communities continues. I have been able to see many brothers and sisters having evangelism activities in the area. We also partner with them for their physical needs, both of the pastors and their families, and of the church members. We have partnered with them in the construction of a simple kitchen and bathrooms. These are basic needs of a church. I am happy that we have completed this project. The church is so happy to have something so simple and necessary as bathrooms.

Thank you so much for your prayers!
