

HIS POWER AT WORK

Ephesians 3:20

Kristian Perdomo, missionary in San Pedro Sula, Honduras

The months in the middle of the year provide a good time to look back on what the Lord has allowed us to achieve so far, as well as look ahead on what is yet to come for the rest of the year. As we navigate these months, I pray the Lord will help us do what Ephesians 5:16 says: "making the most of your time, because the days are evil."

Looking back...

June- July

In June, the drama ministry worked on two skits. We tried to show every day scenarios that can happen when living in a place such as San Pedro Sula (the heat, the traffic, the many places to go get coffee) and how to deal with them biblically.

Leadership Under Construction has been growing its audience through the audio and video platforms, and on social media too! We now have an Instagram and Facebook page where more tools are shared and new episodes are announced. The last episode was about Servant Leadership, and the guest was a friend of mine who is getting a Master's in Ministry Leadership at the Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. August - September

Looking ahead...

The local church's annual youth camp is right around the corner! We will be going to Siguatepeque on August 2nd to spend 2 nights studying the Lord's Word and relating it to the theme of the Summer Olympics. I have been asked to teach three topics: the gospel in a creative way, the importance of worship, and how to stay away from sin. Aside from this, I will be a camp counselor, which means I will have a group of a few boys with whom I will be sharing the experience, from devotionals, to rooms. Please pray the Lord will give me and all of the leaders wisdom and boldness as we teach His word.

A couple of months from now, on the weekend of September 20-22, we will be presenting an evangelistic play. We are inviting people from all over the city to come and experience a play about a murder mystery that takes place in a mansion. We will use this story to share the gospel. I have been asked to play the character of the detective who is investigating, and who finds out his firm belief in facts and logic may not be enough to save him from sin. Please pray for all the members of each area involved in the production, as well as for the people who will be in the audience on all three nights.

Wedding plans

Marcela and I are very happy to be planning our wedding, our honeymoon, and our life together. We have decided to get married in a beautiful place in Siguatepeque, surrounded by mountains and pine trees. Right now, we are praying for provision from the Lord for the wedding, the home furnishing, all the remaining wedding planning to be smooth, and for the Lord to show His will on where we should travel for our honeymoon. We are praying to be able to go outside the country, but we are still looking at costs and possibilities. Join us in praying for all of this.

I'M THANKFUL BECAUSE:

- The social media pages for Leadership Under Construction provide new ways to reach more leaders.
- At the small group, there is a group of teenagers who are interested in growing more and supporting the work with their peers. Pray for this group of 5-7 and their growth.
- There are good opportunities to share the gospel and teach about the Lord during the youth camp.
- We are doing another evangelistic play. Every year, this play represents a big joint effort and good opportunities to grow in love and knowledge of the Lord alongside a group of brothers and sisters who are serving the Lord through this ministry.
- The wedding plans are going well, and we are excited rather than overwhelmed with what there is to be done.

I ASK FOR YOUR PRAYERS FOR:

- The youth camp this weekend. May the Lord transform their lives with His Word through teachings, group activities, devotionals, and the experience as a whole.
- Wisdom and boldness in sharing the gospel and teaching the Bible during the three topics I was assigned for the youth camp.
- Diligence in keeping the social media page and the podcast going in order to share the tools that will help leaders and honor the Lord.
- Discipline in practicing my lines for the evangelistic play in September, as well as wisdom for the whole team including actors, directors, and production staff.
- Wisdom in knowing what to continue doing, and what to let go of in order to focus on what I've been called to do.
- Wisdom as Marcela and I make both big and small decisions in this planning period, such as where we will live, where we will go on our honeymoon, how we will decorate our house, and other details about the wedding. We are enjoying the process, but we are aware it requires wisdom.
- Faith for Marcela and myself as we save money for the wedding, honeymoon and our home. Even though sometimes we get caught up in stressing about provision, the Lord is constantly reminding us that He is our provider and our deliverer when we are in need. We praise Him for that!
