

Sept.-November updates from Eswatini

DIRECTOR'S COMMENTS

Ngwane, making remarks in one of the strategic sessions

What a joy it is to lead a team that serves in our country to connect with target audiences to effectively share the gospel. All our initiatives are not an end to themselves, rather they serve as a diving board where an end in sight is souls and meaningful discipleship. Through them, we seek to empower teachers, other professionals and community workers to make a lasting impact in their communities. We, therefore, are grateful to the Lord for the recent sessions held.

On another note: In partnership with Conference of Churches (an umbrella body for churches in our country) in December 3-11, we have a road trip, doing 4 sessions with Pastors on Mental Health. This is more of a sensitization 1-day session in all 4 regions, hoping to create a build up for next year's training workshop. We dearly covet your prayers as we go about with this one!

OUTREACHES AND MEANINGFUL ENGAGEMENTS

1. STRATEGIC PLANNING SESSION. (Sept. 19-20)

Working with our consultant, board members and our volunteers who helped us craft it from the beginning, we did a review. The purpose was to refine how we do ministry and seek to attain key strategic areas going forward. These include;

- i) Connecting lost people to Jesus
- ii) Engaging in life-changing discipleship
- iii) Multiplying leaders
- iv) Generating resources for organizational sustainability.

What a time of meaningful engagement as we set out to pray and seek a way forward. We are trusting the Lord for more harvest and intentional discipleship engagement for the work that lies ahead!

It was a time of laughter, fun, work and fellowship at our strategic planning

2. TESTIMONY OF HOPE

Sam*, a college friend, had been zealous in serving the Lord. We passionately did outreaches together. Whether evangelistic crusades, tent meetings or discipleship, we were there. Later, he went to further his studies outside the country. When he came back, some cracks had already formed in his marriage. This led to a time of separation and eventually a divorce with his wife. It affected him so much such that he left the faith. Two months ago, we bumped into each other and we set an appointment to meet for a cup of coffee to catch up. During our coffee meeting, 3 weeks later, he expressed a desire to come back to the Lord. A renewal has started. We met again and he eventually committed his life to the Lord. Please pray for meaningful discipleship and progress.

3. MENTAL HEALTH DAY (Oct. 10)

We chose to commemorate this day on the 24 of October with teachers from 2 schools that focus on students with special needs. This was an opportune time for us to reach out to those who are helpless and fatigued by their circumstances. It was a biting cold Friday morning, but the 72 teachers made it for the 2-hr. long drive from their school to our chosen venue, Bible Society Auditorium, Mahlanya. I could sense a tense atmosphere when we began as some of the teachers were questioning why they were here. Little did they know they were in for a treat! Before long, after just two presentations people loosened up, attitudes changed and clearly the Lord was at work in a very special way. At the end of the day minds were equipped, hearts were touched and a foundation to make a lasting impact in their communities had been laid.

4. ANNUAL PRAYER BREAKFAST (Nov. 28)

Jesus met people where they were- in cities and villages. Relevant yet impactful That is the model we seek to emulate. Our annual prayer breakfast enables us to take the gospel to people who would have otherwise not been a part of our outreaches, yet they fully appreciate an opportunity to partner with us in doing so. It becomes a beautiful time to share what we do and get their buy in.

We are always grateful for the opportunity to connect with such an audience of people; our volunteers, friends and partners under one roof. Through this initiative, we can cast our vision, challenge potential partners and give an update of what we have done throughout the year. We thank God for the 74 people that participated in our event this year!
