BELOVED,

What a joy and privilege to serve our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ!! The apostle Paul wrote to the church in Corinth, "Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain". And this is what we have seen these months of October and November.

God is pressing on our hearts to train a new generation of leaders, and we need to be very intentional in accomplishing this task.

I was invited in Lima to preach in a youth meeting. The topic was: "To walk with God in integrity". My challenge to them was to spend more time studying God's Word than to spend a lot of time on their phone, or on the media, to focus their hearts in loving the Lord and His Word and to be intentional to live and walk in the fear of the Lord.

God gave us the privilege to travel to Curacao. I had the privilege to preach at the mission's conference, and I know that God's truth, God's Word, has been taught. We learned also about the urgency they have there to train young leaders to walk in the fear of the Lord, to be faithful to the Word of the Lord, to love the Lord with all their heart, mind, soul and strength, because they are the ones that will one day be the leaders of this new generation. What a great responsibility for us. Also, we were able to serve together with Priscila at this conference through music.

I was also invited to another mission's conference at Providence Church in Raleigh, NC. What a great blessing to be with the leadership of the church, to be among a church that loves the Lord and has a passion for missions. Every time I'm at a conference, my prayer is: "Lord, teach me, renew my heart, enlarge my vision". It was a great time. And God, who is in control of everything, put me in a Life Class that loves the Lord and wants to serve the Lord.

Now, back in Peru, we have ministry with the school and with the church. We are one month away from finishing this school year and, in all the activities we have, we want to proclaim the Person of Jesus and His salvation. Please, pray that we will honor our Lord and Savior, and that many kids and parents will continue to understand the gospel and that this understanding will lead them to trust Jesus as their Savior. We have three graduations, Kindergarten, Elementary, and High School, and the School Christmas program; all of these are opportunities to preach Christ and His salvation. Also, with the church, we are preparing for our Christmas cantata. Pray that this will be a blessing to all of us, and that the gospel will be proclaimed with all boldness, and that God will be glorified in fruits of salvation, and in all areas of our lives.

Beloved, we love you, we pray for you, and thank you so much for your love, your care, your prayers, your financial support, and your encouragement to us.

Till all will hear of the Savior,

Juan, Eva and Priscila Barriento
