HIS POWER AT WORK

Ephesians 3:20

Kristian Perdomo, missionary in San Pedro Sula, Honduras

The year is about to end. What can we highlight about it? What lessons does it leave us with?

Great is His faithfulness

There is much to be thankful for:

- The wedding.
- The opportunity to direct a play about Jesus with a school that didn't know me.
- The opportunity for my family to go to another country.
- Marcela's good recovery after her surgery.
- The growth in the monthly audience of the podcast.

In all circumstances, His grace and love have been constant.

We thank each of you for your support this year.
Your financial backing, and above all your prayers, sustain us in the most difficult days.

To God
be
the glory

HIS POWER AT WORK

Latest Updates

Last month I mentioned some prayer requests. Here I share with you what happened, and a couple of new updates:

- The day I preached at the local church, I was nervous, but I was happy to share what the Lord had taught me. 653 people came that day. Since then, several people have said they felt challenged, encouraged, and edified by my message. Glory to God!
- I recently completed a certification in music education. I learned a lot, and this will have a direct impact on the music teaching ministry.
- This month we collaborated with a ministry that supports women at social risk, and we presented a drama about the story of Mary.

I'M THANKFUL FOR:

- God's faithfulness throughout this year.
- The teaching opportunities the Lord has given me this year. I have understood that He wants to work with me in that area.
- Marcela. We are two and a half months away from our first wedding anniversary, and she has been the greatest blessing God has given me.

I ASK FOR YOUR PRAYERS FOR:

- Rest and an opportunity to recharge our batteries during these days, to replenish the strength we feel we have lost, and to start the new year with as much energy as possible.
- Financial provision for all ministry projects.
- The Lord's wisdom to create a new structure for the Light on High drama ministry.
- That God will keep us in good health and provide for all medical expenses.
