

TIME FOR

A QUICK UPDATE!

November 2025

I ask for your prayers this week!

Hello, World Reach family:

I hope the Lord is blessing your ministry at church and with your family. I would like to share a couple of prayer requests for this week, along with some things from last month for which I'm grateful.

Some numbers:

+7,700 people reached in October with the podcast

Between short videos, podcast episodes, interviews and leadership phrases. The content is finding an audience!

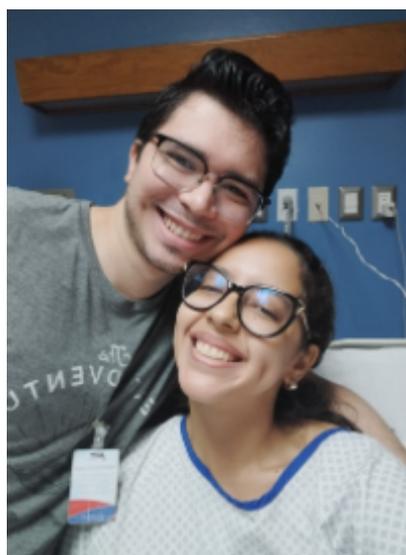

The opportunity of speaking in front of over 600 people

Pray for this Saturday's (November 8th) church sermon.

Marcela's surgery

As I mentioned in the October prayer letter, Marcela had surgery for a cyst on her left ovary. Although it took longer than expected, the surgery went well. Her recovery has been as expected, and she has now returned to work. Please pray for her follow-up appointment with the doctor this coming Friday, November 7.

The podcast has had a wide reach.

Every Monday we publish a short interview, every Wednesday an educational video, and this month we prepared two full episodes of the podcast, for November and December of this year. Between social media and streaming platforms, this month the content was viewed by more than 7,700 people.

Sermon at the local church

I ask for your prayers because the pastoral staff of the local church has asked me to deliver the message this coming Saturday, November 8. I have been a little nervous, as it is my first time speaking in front of such a large audience (average attendance is 650 people per Saturday), but I trust that God will speak through me to communicate what He desires.

New Mobile Bible Institute

In October, the five members of the World Reach team in Honduras took a trip to the town of Belén Gualcho, in the mountains of Honduras. There is a possibility of starting a new Mobile Bible Institute there, so I ask for your prayers that we may be able to begin next year.
