NEWSLETTER

DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS, FAITHFUL PARTNERS IN THE LORD'S WORK:

This winter has been especially severe in Romania, and many families have suffered under the harsh conditions. We thank God, that once again, He has allowed us to serve our community. With the help of our church's former pastor, Brother Gheorghe Pordea, who resides in St. Louis, Missouri, USA, we received a donation of nearly 5,000 winter coats. These were distributed among vulnerable children and rural communities around Braşov. This outreach has been carried out for several years, and we praise the Lord for allowing us to be instruments of His grace and provision to so many children in need.

New Marriage Class

We are also grateful for the beginning of a new class for young couples. We meet twice a month with 20 couples who have been married less than three years. Together with two more experienced couples, we are guiding them through key topics that affect marital harmony, such as finances, child-rearing, communication, and conflict resolution.

We firmly believe that strengthening families strengthens the church. For this reason, we encourage every couple to become integrated into small groups where they can grow in fellowship, mutual edification, and commitment to the body of Christ.

Our family small group ministry continues to bear fruit. This spring, we are in the process of forming two additional groups, trusting the Lord to continue building His church and deepening the spiritual maturity of the believers.

We would also like to mention Rebeca, who is part of our international group. She is originally from Rwanda and recently completed her PhD in cybersecurity. She will soon relocate to Ireland for work. She has served faithfully in the church and is greatly appreciated by our community. We pray that the Lord will use her mightily wherever He leads her.

We ask for special prayer for our biblical counseling ministry, which occupies a significant portion of our time. We minister both to believers and unbelievers who seek help in the midst of personal and family crises. The need for pastoral wisdom and spiritual discernment is constant. Many of these sessions are conducted online, which broadens our reach but also requires grace, patience, and the Lord's direction.

We are deeply grateful for your faithfulness in supporting this ministry through your prayers and partnership. You are part of what God is doing here in Braşov. Please pray for our health, spiritual strength, and perseverance in service, that Christ may be exalted and His gospel continue transforming lives.

With gratitude in the Lord,

Francisco and Marita Berrios
