

WORKING WITH HOPE IN THE LIVING GOD CRISTIAN & SANDRA FUENTES

Serving in Colombia MARCH 2026

“For to this we also labor and are reproached, because we hope in the living God, who is Savior of all men, especially of those who believe.”
1 Timothy 4:10

Dear partners, these words from the Apostle Paul resonate with special strength in our hearts as we conclude this month of March. Missionary work in our own city requires effort, but it is a labor we perform with immense joy because our hope is set on the Living God. You are a fundamental part of this effort, and we want to share how God guided our family this month in our city.

Visit to "THE CHURCH AT HOME" (Bosa Neighborhood)

We visited the church with a clear purpose: to share a teaching that would challenge and encourage the brothers and sisters in their personal relationship with the Lord. The theme was "Igniting Your Passion for God." It was a precious time of edification as we came alongside those who serve our Lord Jesus Christ week after week in this neighborhood.

Visit to Biblica La Alqueria Church

Through an unexpected call, God allowed me to connect with brother Víctor González here in Bogotá, who invited me to lead an Inductive Method training. As a graduate and former teacher with World Reach and the Bible Institute, it was a blessing to see Victor continue in the work.

We see these invitations as clear calls from God to build up the church, especially in the area of Bible study. During these Sundays, we not only provided the training; we also joined them in evangelism and a couples' meeting. It was a wonderful encounter that may open a significant door for the future work of leadership training.

In what specific way—whether through daily intercession, financial support, or consistent connection—do you feel God is inviting you to participate more deeply in this mission today?

If you feel God is stirring you to participate in a new or deeper way, please email me at cfuentes@world-reach.org
